

Chapel Hill B&B offers Chatham getaway

By Oscar Moncada

Guests to Chapel Hill Bed and Breakfast have the opportunity to enjoy Chapel Hill's historical origins and modern charms from the bucolic beauty of Chatham County. Our location is a relaxing oasis in the midst of the serene countryside, situated just five miles from Downtown Chapel Hill and UNC.

Come to relax in one of four custom, intimate guest suites, each tastefully decorated and perfect for the romantic getaway or to escape from the long business day.

The vision came in 2006 when I found the property on the internet. I had a bed and breakfast in Virginia Beach, Va., at the time. I fell in love with the property and saw the potential. The house was rundown and there was a lot of junk in the back. The only thing I didn't find was the skeletons. I oversaw the remodeling.

Chapel Hill Bed and Breakfast is situated on six acres centrally located to the beauty, entertainment, and arts that Chatham, Chapel Hill, Carrboro, Durham, and Cary have to offer. Nestled under towering oaks this enchanting place is home to a celebration of nature. Wildlife abounds within the park-like nature of the property: home to deer, red fox, cardinals, brilliant goldfinches, egrets, hummingbirds, a resident falcon and more.

fluffy Belgian waffles with mouth-watering toppings. Aromatic espresso and freshly ground coffee complement the beauty awaiting outside should you wish to have breakfast on the upstairs balcony, served on your room's private dining area, or mingle with fellow guests in the formal dining room.

The luxury continues with premium Kingsdown mattresses, glossy wood floors, Egyptian cotton linens, organic olive oil soaps, Crabtree & Evelyn and L'Occitane toiletries, fireplaces, flat screen HDTV's and personal refrigerators tucked away to chill your favorite wines and cheeses. The upstairs suites enjoy the elegant balcony, which overlooks the gardens and lily pond, with bistro tables and chairs to enjoy the tranquility and relaxing of a romantic night.

Fully outfitted with wireless internet access, Chapel Hill Bed and Breakfast combines streamlined luxury with the necessary access to technology. It is the elegant alternative for those seeking a weekend retreat, offering the so frequently unobtainable peace, privacy, relaxation, and beauty of nature.

The Oak Pavilion located behind the main house has the capacity to hold up to 140 guests, and is the perfect setting for catered events. Fully wired to support technology as well as musical performance needs, this structure was built using recycled milled oak from the property, and hosts nighttime lighting and fans, as well as parking for approximately 70 cars. All of this makes it the perfect place to hold a wedding, reception, retreat, private parties, and any other special event.

Our hospitable staff will be happy to arrange a viewing of the property to introduce you to the "best kept secret of Chatham" and to share with you the passion that we have for this picturesque area. Let us welcome you as our guest and experience all that Chatham County has to offer and the Southern hospitality it is famous for.
